On the Potomac -- an eclectic dining experience featuring Farm-to-Fork concepts and American cuisine utilizing fresh, local ingredients. The best of everything the Virginia countryside has to offer skillfully prepared and presented in a casual, yet refined setting.

The Riverside Hearth -- Savor a delicious dining experience as you gaze over picturesque views of the rolling countryside. Join us for breakfast, lunch and dinner, featuring a continually changing selection of regional American cuisine served buffet style or a la carte.

Lansdowne Resort

Stonewalls Tavern -- casual atmosphere complete with billiards, shuffleboard, two Nintendo Wii stations, a massive fieldstone fireplace and large screen televisions.

The Crooked Billet -- located in the majestic clubhouse overlooking the Potomac River Valley. It takes its name from a crooked piece of wood that tavern owners would hang over their entryway to indicate that they were a place to eat and drink. Enjoy specialties for both lunch and dinner, featuring American flair and European cooking accents. Dine in the main dining room, outside on the sun-dappled terrace overlooking The Norman Course and driving range, or plan a special event in the private dining room.

Pub 46 -- offering your favorite beverages and lite fare.

Please note, The Crooked Billet and Pub 46 are private restaurants for members of The Golf Club at Lansdowne and guests staying at the Resort.

Poolside Café -- located on the pool deck with access from the golf course, Poolside Café offers sandwiches, snack items and beverages. (open seasonally)

Recreational Amenities:

45-holes of championship golf, including the Robert Trent Jones Jr. (RTJ II) Course and The Norman Course, plus a 9-hole short course, known as “Shark Bite”; Spa Minérale, a full service spa and health club; three lighted outdoor tennis courts, racquetball, outdoor volleyball, indoor lap pool and an outdoor Aquatic Complex.

Area Attractions:

Loudoun County is home to more than 20 wineries (many within 30 minutes of the resort); The Smithsonian Air and Space Museum’s Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center; The Leesburg Corner Premium Outlets and the Dulles Town Center (for great shopping). Historic towns, antique shops and beautiful countryside are also just down the street.
